A CARD was handed us a few days ago announcing one of the citizens of our county for one of the county office "subject to the choice of the people November 12, 1904."

This was the first intimation we had that there was to be any election in Knox county except the Republican primary on November 12, 1904.

This particular candidate, we are reliably informed, has denounced both the Republican and Democratic parties, and now comes out with his card asking that "the people" select him in a Republican primary as the one to hold office, while there are true and loyal Republicans who are asking the nomination at the hands of the party.

We presume further, that this distinguished "peoples" candidate is making his race on his righteousness, as he concludes his card with a verse from Proverbs, and reads as follows: "When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice, but when the wicked beareth rule the people mourn."

We have no acquaintance with the candidate referred to, and have no objection to his making the race upon any kind of a platform he chooses, but we would suggest to all Republicans to be careful not to be led astray by false prophets or those who may wrap the robe of righteousness about them while they hold up their hands in holy horror of the party they seek to abuse, and at the same time try to come in and share the fruits of the party they have denounced.

We shall be guarded against such candidates when we go to the polls to cast our vote to make a selection for Nominees. There is danger of admitting an enemy within the walls.

THE highest tribunal in the Republic that the right of trial by Jury does not inevitably follow the flag. In Kentucky we would be glad to know whether it ever will be adopted at all.

A suggestion for the St. Louis Democratic convention has been made as follows: For President, Alton B. Parker, of New York. For Vice President, James Stephen Hogg, of Texas, Platform—Lockjaw and Hogjow.

Dr. Hunter in company with Mr. Yarberry of Adair, in making a tour of this district and speaking at different points. The Dr. is making new friends every day and at the same time retaining his old ones and unless there is a wonderful change in the tide he will be an easy winner.

Bob Franklin orated to the assembled Democrats in the State house yard at Frankfort for an hour last Saturday. Immediately afterward the crowd voted solidly the other way. It is evident that this time the venire for the jury was fairly selected.
